

ELECTION OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

Election is a process in which people vote to choose a person or group of people to hold an official position.

Election offence is a crime that breaks electoral laws and requires a particular punishment.

Penalty is a punishment that is given to someone for doing something which is against a law or rule.

Every registrant with a valid voter's card is eligible to vote.

However, there are rules guiding the electoral process and anyone who violates these rules is liable on conviction to be penalized as indicated below:
